

Eugene White

June 22, 1955 - April 19, 2016

EUGENE WHITE was born on June 22, 1955 in Detroit, Michigan to the union of Johnny Louis White and Bettie Jean Forbes-White. The second of six children, Eugene was characterized as a strong-willed young man from his youth into his adult life. He graduated from Finney High School and enlisted into the U.S. Navy where he served faithfully until he was honorably discharged in 1972. In 1975, he started his career with the U.S. Postal Service until he retired in 2009. Eugene fondly referred to as "Gino", was born into a legacy of faith from his grandparents, Bishop Ellington & Mother Hilda Forbes (founders of Greater Grace Apostolic Temple). He received Christ in his adult life, and combined his faith in God with the faith of his soulmate and wife, Cymantha Jewel Channey-White on May 22, 2004. The two hearts became one as they vowed to the ministry of parenthood for the anointed gift of their son, Zechariah Eugene White. Eugene had a servant's giving heart, which was known by all who knew him. He was preceded in death by his mother and father, one brother (Johnny L. White, Jr.), a son (Eugene DePriest Smith); and he leaves to cherish his memory his devoted wife (Cymantha Jewel), his beloved son (Zechariah Eugene), one brother (Gary White), 3 sisters (Sherry, Sharon and Netta White) and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family and friends. He will be truly missed.

“ “...And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more...” “And I have hope toward God, which hope these men also look forward to, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous” Dear Family: As precious memories keep your loved one, Eugene, close to your hearts, please...keep Gods unfailing promises close in mind. (Revelation 21:4,5; Acts 24:15, Titus 1:2) With heartfelt condolences to you.
