

Jermaine Bush

August 12, 1980 - August 28, 2019

Jermaine Travell Bush was born August 12, 1980 at Wayne County General Hospital in Westland, Michigan to the proud parents of Cathy Bush and Durwin Windom.

Jermaine accepted Christ at an early age. He gave love endlessly and always showed compassion to others. He would literally give a person the shoes off his feet. Jermaine was selfless and kind. He was a gentle giant loved by young and old.

Jermaine worked as a machine operator at several companies most notably Die Services International in Belleville, Michigan.

Jermaine loved clean shoes, nice cars and good music. He was the Motor City at heart. As a child, he always wanted to play organized sports, but due to the severity of his asthma he was unable to play. Therefore, his desire for sports grew into a passion for building model cars. He would take a box containing hundreds of little pieces and meticulously construct those pieces into the most amazing miniature automobile.

On August 28, 2019, the Lord saw fit to call Jermaine home. He leaves to cherish his memories his mother, Cathy Bush; paternal grandmother, Burnette Windom; one son, who he admired and adored, Dorien Jackson (mother Sade Jackson); his sister, Sonia "Pookie" Bush; his brother, Brandon Bagley; seven aunts, Janice Rose (Willie), Shirley Bush, Mary Wilson (James), Virginia Dooley (Emmitt), Betty Bush-Evins, Sandra Gibbs (Gerald) and Celeste Windom, three uncles Emarshall Lee Bush (Helen), Curtis Bush (Angela), Derrick Windom; two nephews, Andre Windom Jr. and Kingston Lance; one niece, Meyari Harris and a host of cousins, extended family and friends.

Jermaine is preceded in death by maternal grandparents Rhoda Mae Bush and S.D. Williams; uncle, Quinton Windom; his paternal grandfather, Willie Windom; father, Durwin Windom and brother, Andre Windom Sr. He will join his paternal grandfather, father and brother in rest at Westlawn Cemetery in Westland, Michigan.

“ I realize growing up as young man I become strong and tough. When my family moved from Detroit to Taylor in 89 . But the year of 95 and 96 I helped organize a family of friends of my own and Jermaine AKA Barney was the someone we all befriend. Because he could make you laugh within Instant. I become his big brother in the streets, and he was little brother. As I realize he will always be my day one little brother. I'm going to miss you Barney.. One...
